Detecting multiple self-intersections in families of loops

Nathalie Wahl

University of Copenhagen

Abstract

In joint work with Nancy Hingston, we show that string topology operations can be used to detect the presence of loops with k-fold self-intersections in chain representatives of homology classes in the loop space of a closed manifold. I'll explain this result and its concrete consequences, as well as surrounding ideas.